Happy Friday!

Party In The City... This time last week our Year 5 children were down at the Abbey rehearsing for the official opening of Party in the City. When the evening came they gave a stunning performance, singing songs they had helped to compose which told the story of the history of Bath Festival. They have been working with musicians and artists for several weeks in preparation for this, and the end result was brilliant.

The singing, acting and performance of all of the children was outstanding and lots of people have commented on what a credit they were to us all during a long day of rehearsal and waiting. Thank you Ms Dangerfield, Mr Cooper and to all of the parents who supported us during the day. It made me very proud to see our children shine like that.

Au revoir Debbie... Today marks the end of an era as our Parent Support Adviser Debbie Youngs is moving on to a new challenge within the Local Authority. Debbie has worked with us and other local schools for many years now, providing support and advice to parents in countless ways. She has had a huge impact upon many families and will be sorely missed. It is a very sad reflection of the current climate that the Local Authority can no longer afford to sustain such vital services and we are talking within our hub of schools about how we can replace this important role. For now though, I am sure that you will join me in wishing Debbie all the very best for the future.

Which just leaves me to wish you a happy, restful and (hopefully) sunny half term break and we will see you on Tuesday 5th June for Healthy Body Healthy Mind week. Andy Bowman

Get Caught Reading...

The Get Caught Reading Challenge ends today, with Mr Bowman announcing the winner in Celebration Assembly. Mrs Smith and Mrs Young will be counting up the points. Could one of these classes be the winner? Whatever happens, huge congratulations to everyone who has taken part.
