

Online Safety Resources

Internet Matters

Really useful site for parents with information on all areas of online safety.

Click here to access their “Back to School” resource

<http://www.internetmatters.org/back-to-school/>

App guide for parents

There are so many apps available, check out the ones that raise some concerns. Also secret apps (Apps that you can hide other apps within)

<http://www.internetmatters.org/advice/apps-guide/>

Kids Smart

<http://www.kidsmart.org.uk>

Parent Zone

As it says on the tin!, online zone with advice and tips for parents, including fact sheets and the Digital Parenting issues.

<http://www.theparentzone.co.uk>

Parents Protect

Another fact full site to support parents, including information about the Police’s Disclosure Service “Sarah’s Law”. You can download useful SMART RULES.

<http://www.parentsprotect.co.uk/home.htm>

Common Sense Media

Really useful and “accurate” information on apps, websites and in particular games!

<https://www.common sense media.org>

ThinuKnow

CEOP (Child Exploitation and Online Protection) Site. Full of age appropriate training videos and advice for parents/professionals and children/young people. Report to Police button.

<https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk>

Monitoring and Raising Concerns:

Home and Device Control Settings

<http://www.internetmatters.org/controls/interactive-guide/>

ThinuKnow

CEOP (Child Exploitation and Online Protection) Site. Report to Police button

<https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk>

